BRITNEY BROWN VOLLEYBALL CAMP

Join Britney (Brown) Branson-Vail Christian High School Head Volleyball Coach and three-time 2A Western Slope Coach of the Year—for a fun, high-energy volleyball camp focused on skill development, confidence and love for the game.

A Colorado State Champion and Tournament MVP at Battle Mountain High School, Branson went on to become a Division I standout at Northeastern University, where she was a four-year starter and the 2010 Colonial Athletic Association Player of the Year. She also played professionally in Sweden and coached at the collegiate level at Laramie County Community College, where she was later inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Now in her third season at VCHS, Branson has led her teams to multiple league and regional championships, state tournament appearances, and numerous all-conference and all-state honors. Her camps combine age-appropriate skill training, game strategy, and competitive play in a positive, encouraging environment designed to help athletes grow both on and off the court. Eighth graders trying volleyball for the first time should sign up for the grade 5-7 session.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Tom Slaughter, Jr. Memorial Youth Recreation Grant awards funds to school-age youth living in Eagle County for any Vail Recreation District youth program.

Grant decisions are based mostly on financial need, but other factors such as the applicant's desire, ease of participation and positive growth benefits are also considered.

Applicants may receive full, partial or no financial assistance from this grant request, which is administered by the Vail Recreation District.

Program funds are entirely fundraised, so the financial status of the account may affect the number of grants made in certain years. Grant recipients will receive notice for opportunities to help raise money for future program funds.

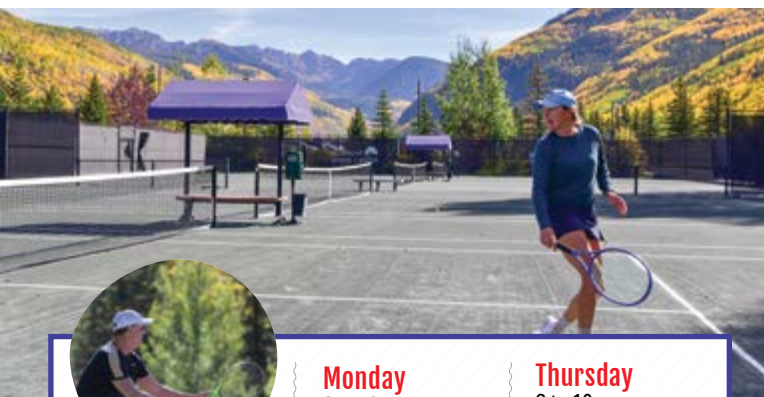

College Scholarships

The Vail Recreation District also honors one male and one female graduating senior each year with the Vail Scholar-Athlete Recognition Award for outstanding academic and athletic achievement.

Applications are due online at vailrec.com by May 15.
